

Creekside WI December Monthly Meeting Report

Our President Mrs Ann Parker welcomed members with a mention for the Wight Accordion Group.

A special Birthday Buttonhole made by Marlene Cassidy, was given to Mary Lavery.

The Best Bloom was won by Cheryl Howell and the Carol Competition was won by Sylvia Burrows. Congratulations to you all!

Ooo la la! Candles were lit in our French bistro and celebrations began. Some members entered into the spirit of the evening with French fancy dress including striped tops and berets. Esme Crowther won the 'Best Costume' prize. There was a delicious variety of foods both French and English to enjoy while listening to Wight Accordions play carols and songs, some with a French flavour. A Quiz and a 'What's in your Handbag' competition kept brains ticking over and the Creekside 'Choir' included a French Carol in their repertoire with words provided so that we could all join in with the chorus. 'We Wish You A Merry Christmas' rounded off the evening. Ann Parker thanked everyone for their creativity and culinary skills making it such an enjoyable and festive occasion.

Joyeux Noël et Bonne Année!
