

CREEKSIDE WI MONTHLY REPORT - MAY 2016

The President Dorothy Maskell welcomed members and guest Sylvia Vallendei.

Mary Stocker was thanked for making the Birthday Buttonholes including special ones for Linda Sheasby and Hazel Laight who celebrated 'Special' birthdays.

The Best Bloom competition was won by Cheryl Coles with runners-up Jenny Gaches and Maureen Turner.

Dorothy Maskell had taken part in the Fashion Parade held by Edinburgh Wool and the profit made by a Raffle was given to Cowes WI for their current project.

Several members had enjoyed a walk in Combley Great Wood to see the bluebells.

Peri Ryan from Freshwater WI was introduced as the new organiser of the WI tent at the Bestival this year. Volunteer drivers and cake makers were needed as well as staff for the tent and these, she stressed, would need to be fit as it would be a very tiring but exciting and interesting experience.

It was agreed that the Binstead WI member representing the Northshore Group should be given permission to use her discretion at the National Annual Meeting when voting for the Resolutions.

There was no speaker as there were all the competition entries to be examined. These included classes in Cookery, Art, Craft, Flower Arranging and Photography.

Silver spoons, cups and trophies were awarded and the overall winner with the most points was Ann Parker.
