

Creekside's Report for May

After the members were welcomed, recognition for long service to Creekside was given to Mary Lavery (20 years) and Jenny Gaches (10 years).

Dorothy Maskell thanked members who had entered and organised the craft competition.

Creekside members were well represented when the Women Walk the World took place. The walk between Sandown and Shanklin raised money to support women in India.

The best bloom competition was won by Jenny Gaches.

A short DVD informing members of the merit of enrolling at Denman College was followed by Susan Philips sharing happy memories of her visits.

During tea, members were able to appreciate crafts, paintings, drawings and photographs that had been submitted, followed by a presentation of certificates of merit. Judges commented on the high standard of work that had been achieved.

The winners were:

Cookery – Ann Pearson

Craft - Cheryl Howell

Flower arrangement – Dorothy Maskell

Photography – Daphne Williams

Novice – Sylvia Williams

The overall winner with the most points was Ann Pearson. The runner up was Ann Parker.
